for other statesmen.

Alfonso of Spain promises to set a new standard of splendor for royal weddings. May he also set a new standard for wedded kings.

The increasing friendliness between England and Germany grows apparent. There is little danger now of Uncle Ed's spanking Nephew Bill.

It now develops that the prize-fight at which Harry Tenny was killed was not legally conducted. To the lay mind this should make legal executions possible, to sort of even things up.

District Attorney Langdon of San Francisco is closing up the poker clubs. It seems that no place of unlawful assemblage is safe against his pernicious activity.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs has taken to dining with tight kid gloves on the chubby hands of her. It would be interesting to know what the late Jim Fair would have said of it.

Great Britain is to spend $330,000,000 in strengthening her coast defense. The situation must make our strenuous President feel that it would be nice to trade jobs with King Edward.

The management of the New York life insurance companies has cost $1,000,000 less during the year of exposures than it did last. No wonder the financiers decry these investigations.

From the latest manifesto of the Czar it is plain to be seen that the recently granted liberties of the Russian people have many strings upon them, strings that are calculated to eventually get around the Czar's neck.

The late Anna Gould states that she will consent to separation from Count Boni de Castellane on "easy terms." The countess grows sarcastic, or humorous, or funny, according to the way one looks at the situation.

Andrew Hamilton, lobbyist, returns to New York from his safe haven at Paris, with the statement that he is ready to face the music. The grim suggestion offers itself that the music may be the monotonous thud of the foot-step.

Wood, in any length, can be obtained at Petersen & Springmeyer's hay and wood yard, south Carson St. Offices—County Building, Carson St., Carson City, Nevada, and Rooms 741-742 James Flood Building, 970 Market Street, San Francisco, California.

Some armored automobiles have been made in France for shipment to Russia. Now the Czar and his army may go out with some hope of back safety.
